

Danny Tice
Obituary
October 19, 2023

Daniel Ray Tice joined our Lord and Savior on October 19, 2023 at the age of 84.

Daniel was born in Hooker, Oklahoma on November 22, 1938, to Otis Daniel Tice and Artie Katherine Hamby Arnold.

After graduating from Hollis High School, Danny served in the National Guard. Danny married the love of his life, Judith, on January 27, 1967, in Eunice, New Mexico. Danny and Judy travelled all over the country while working for Shell Pipeline making many life-long friends along the way and retired in 1992 in Hamlin, TX while working on the McCamey to Cushing 10” pipeline.

His children and grandchildren were the apple of his eye and he was filled with pride for each of them. Danny was a giver to many, and dearly cherished all those he loved. He was quick to forgive, gave with his whole heart, and was always eager to share with others his love for his Savior, Jesus Christ.

Danny was preceded in death by his parents, Otis Daniel Tice (Bernice Tice) and Artie Katherine Hamby Arnold (Floyd Arnold); his siblings, Lenora Tice and Harry Miller; and many dear aunts, uncles and cousins that he loved so dearly.

He is survived by his loving wife of 56 years, Judith DeGroot Tice, his daughters and son-in-love, Dannielle Tice, Michelle Tice, and Lynnelle Trevino (Shane Trevino); his granddaughters, Taylor Harris (Jacob Sheehan), Shawnee Harris (Chaz Gonzales), Bergan Benivamondez (Sebastian), and Baylor Trevino; and one great grandson, Saint Benivamondez.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to Gentiva Hospice for their love, care, and compassion for Danny and his family. A graveside service will be held 11:00 AM Saturday, October 21, 2023, at the City of Lubbock Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family suggest donating to Gentiva Hospice or another charity dear to your heart.
